

coles

In 2008, we were also contracted to help develop innovations in fresh retailing for the second largest supermarket chain in Australia – Coles, which led to the creation of several successful new store prototypes that catalyzed the revitalization over the next five years of its business nationally.

